

The Day my Bedroom Changed!

You wake up one morning, and as you open your eyes, you notice something very peculiar! Your bedroom has completely changed! You are now in a completely different world!

Write a story using descriptive language to explain what happens next. Organise your writing using paragraphs for different ideas.

- Think about the beginning, the middle and the end.
- What do you do? How do you feel?
- What does this strange, new world look like?
- What happens next?
